The International Value Investing Conference will take place on November 6th. European Capital Partners' Chief Investment Officer Léon Kirch and Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Allan Jensen will be in attendance to discuss their philosophies and deliver insights.

Attendance is limited to 150 people, reserve your seat today!

Léon Kirch

Partner & CIO at European Capital Partners, Léon has dedicated 20 years of his career to Value Investing and is one of the few value managers worldwide who have outperformed the MSCI Europe over a period of twelve years. He is known to clients foremost as the fund manager of the Nordea European Value Fund that he co-managed from 2002 to 2014. His arrival at ECP in 2014 marks the beginning of a new entrepreneurial dynamic, characterized by the launch of a portfolio management activity founded on the key concept of “Entrepreneurial Value Investing” and a strong wish to promote the merits of active management in relation to the growing success of passive investment solutions.

Allan Jensen

A portfolio manager with 18 years of experience in asset management, Allan is one of the few value portfolio managers in Luxembourg. He started with Nordea Bank in 1997 where he held various positions in product development, distribution, advisory and trading. In 2005, he moved to UBS in Luxembourg and served as a portfolio manager for multi asset mandates. Prior to joining European Capital Partners in 2015, he worked with Léon Kirch for four years at European Value Partners.
